Abstract: - This Scientific research article focus that the early void Universe shall be considered from Hydrogen and CNO. The J-Radiation shall be considered as the Mother of Hydrogen. The 1st generation CNO element shall be considered as three fundamental species to Hydrogen and considered as highly pure matter of the Universe.

The above article focus that the various life organisms could have been originated in the Universe after formation of fundamental Pure CNO environment (Mixture of Carbon, Nitrogen, Ozone) derived from Hydrogen. The existence of life under fundamental CNO environment shall be considered as “oxygen free” 1st generation life”. CNO shall mean Carbon, Nitrogen, Ozone; Oxygen shall be considered as 3rd Generation element and species to ozone. Ozone is like “ICE”; oxygen is like “WATER”. It is speculated that the 1st Generation life might have subsisted with OZONE BREATH.

Keywords: -

- 1) Philosophy of J-Radiation
- 2) Philosophy of Pure Science

3) Philosophy of Pure Colours

4) Philosophy of Pure Energy

5) Philosophy of Pure Human

In the expanding Universe the subsequent evolution of oxygen during modern time (3rd Generation) might have added more impurities to fundamental CNO environment in three different geological periods and the Universe polluted. Present day climate changes issues, global warming issues might be due to severe CNO imbalance due to growth of higher oxygen and lower carbon level. Further the increase in cancer growth rate is considered due to higher content of oxygen in the atmosphere.

“The Prehistoric life might have switched over to oxygen breath gradually from ozone breath due to Natural Selection in 2nd, 3rd generation. The oxygen free environment shall be considered as Highly Pure environment”.

I. INTRODUCTION

In existing universe it is focused that the environmental change shall be considered as changes in CNO environment which shall result in altering the fundamental properties of preexisting matter. Further in the occurrence of “CNO Cycle” there is no current theory how CNO Variation is initiated?. If it is due to Nature means then What is Nature?... If it is due to Supernature or Science act means then What does mean Supernature?... What does mean Science?... Even Science itself there is a thought about existence of Pure Science. If so what does mean pure Science?... Some theory further focus about mixture of Nature and Science called as Natural Science. If so what does mean Natural Science? I am sorry... Now I am totally confused!... Science shall confuse Human mind?...

What we observe is Nature!...

What we Experience is Science!...

What the Real Truth behind mystery is Supernature!!!...

III. HYPOTHESIS

As per existing current theories, there is no clear distinguished definition about

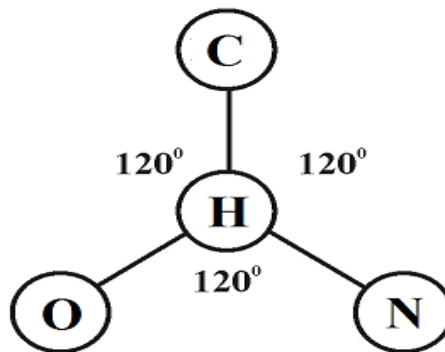

- i) What does mean Supernature?
- ii) What does mean Nature?
- iii) What does mean Science?

(a) It is hypothesized that Supernature, Nature, Science shall be considered as a “Three-in-one” Members of Universe family, and these three members of the family can not be separated. DARK FLAME shall be considered as Hydrogen based internal energy of the supernature.
